London School of Economics
Graduation Ball 2017

LSE STUDENTS’ UNION

LSESU.COM
The London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) is the foremost social science university in the world. Based in central London, LSE is home to over 11,000 students representing over 140 different nation’s worth of top talent. The School’s graduates go on to shape the financial, business, political and voluntary sectors across the globe.

The glamorous Graduation Ball will be held at the stunning Brewery in the City of London. Between 6pm and 1am, 800 students will celebrate with a champagne reception, three course meal and live music.
Experiential marketing

Create a closer bond between graduating LSE students and your organisation as an employment contender through immersing your brand within the social event of the university calendar. Possible experience benefits could include: photo booth provision and playful props; entertainers with sponsor branding; goodie bags for graduate life.

LSE graduates

As university of the year for graduate employment, our alumni are in high demand. 88% of LSE graduates employed in the UK after their studies are located in London, and work within a variety of fields. The most popular field of employment are increasingly the financial, legal and insurance sectors, with well over 30% of graduates securing such work upon graduating.
